

LIVERPOOL ANCIENT GREEK ACADEMY

Liverpool Ancient Greek Academy is a unique and exciting joint initiative between the University of Liverpool Schools Classics Project and the Liverpool Classics Hub, funded by the charity Classics for All.

We offer the opportunity for students in Years 9-13 to learn classical Greek. Students can work towards an Intermediate Certificate in Classical Greek after one year, or continue to GCSE over two years and even on to A level.

All teaching and resources are FREE to state school students.

WHY LEARN ANCIENT GREEK ?

- It's fun and challenging !
- Strengthens your understanding of English.
- Helps with learning other language.
- Make links between humanities, languages, philosophy and the arts.
- Improves your ability to think logically.
- A great language for those who want to study law, medicine or sciences.
- Stand out from the crowd on your University application.
- Valued by many professions, from finance to law
- Read literature, (including the New Testament) ancient history & philosophy in the original language.
- Enables you to understand classical references in art, theatre, film, video games and literature.

TELL ME MORE

Lessons are on term time Saturdays, 10.30am-1pm, at Liverpool College, in South Liverpool near Sefton Park.

Lessons are taught by experienced school teachers.

Class sizes are between 10-20 pupils of mixed ages from a variety of different schools across Merseyside.

No prior knowledge of Greek is required, simply the enthusiasm to give it a go !

In recent years several of our students have gone on to study Classics at University, including Oxford & Cambridge.
