Heritage Culture & Language day

On Tuesday we had a fabulous fun filled day across Primary. We celebrated seven cultures and languages spoken in our school community: Bulgarian, Pakistan/Urdu, Greek, Ukrainian, Yemen/Arabic, German and French. We had some wonderful parents and their children and some of our own teachers providing insight into the diverse cultures and teaching the foreign languages to our pupils. A huge thank you to them, we all learnt so much!

We also had lots of activities throughout the day, relating to the seven countries - music, sport, art, legends, Language nut practice, Greek dance with Mrs Whitehead, German forest school games with our German teaching assistant, Miss Marweld and Forest School leader Mrs Dutton, power point competitions and amazing Ukrainian and Greek cake to sample. It was so lovely to welcome parents to our school and learn about many fascinating cultures and languages. We are looking forward to the next one!

Well done to Howards for winning the House Point Cup

The Organ Restoration Fund has achieved it's fundraising by achieving raising £3,800.00 for the Organ Restoration Fund project. This is a massive achievement, and a new organ will be purchased after the Chapel refurbishments have been made! Thank you to everyone who has supported and contributed generously to the project. More work is yet to be done! Any news or information relating to the Organ Restoration Fund, please contact: lharvey@liverpoolcollege.org.uk !

In many ways, history is always being rewritten. In others, it never changes. It is taught on a weekly basis to the many children in this school, with topics ranging from the Stone Age to the Industrial Revolution, often at quite extraordinary depth and detail. It may well be that in the years to come, there'll be a new unit entitled "The Year 5&6 Mixed Cricket Team of 2025". There may not be enough hours in a term to unpack it all.

Having handsomely won the Liverpool competition at Sefton Park, we travelled to Ormskirk for the Lancashire finals on Tuesday. We arrived with a sense of excitement and trepidation as the sheer scale of the task at hand stood before us: 29 of the strongest teams from across the entire county warming up with skill and vigour. Teams with personalised whites, batting gloves, wooden bats, keeping gloves. Teams with 4 or 5 members of staff and an entire entourage of expectant parents who have danced this dance before. The confidence I had in my own team never wavered, but I'd be lying if I said I didn't feel some level of intimidation.

We were put into a group and thrown the curve ball (should that be reverse swing?) of two extra teams being put in at the last minute, meaning we had to play two shorter matches. We won the first by 70 runs, which set the tone for the rest of the day. We won each subsequent group game, some closer than others, to qualify for the knockout stages, which would take place on the main pitch.

The quarter finals was incredibly tense, as we came up against the school with by far the biggest travelling fan base, who greeted every run and wicket for their team with a cacophony of noise. We weren't to be deterred though, holding out never to narrowly get through to the semi finals. Here we produced our finest display, making a mockery of both the quality of the opposition and the pressure of the moment to sail through to the final - uncharted territory for a team from Liverpool College.

Another large crowd for our opponents awaited us in the final, and it quickly became apparent why the team they were cheering had made it. They were very, very good. All of our team held their heads and nerves far better than I did, as I frantically paced beyond the long on boundary, chaotically shouting instructions and encouragement more for my own sake than theirs. We batted first and posted a brilliant score thanks to enormous hitting. But our opponents maintained a similar run rate for the majority of their innings. With the game in the balance, up stepped young Seb B. With the opponents scampering to make a run, Seb picked up the ball at deep mid-wicket and threw down the stumps, gaining us 5 crucial runs. With 10 needed from the final over, the stakes could not be higher and the tension more palpable. Step up Max D, who bowled 2 dot balls to take it seemingly beyond the reach of our opponents. A 6 off the last ball wasn't enough, as we ended up winning by just 2 runs and entering the history books as the first team from Liverpool College to be crowned champions of the whole of Lancashire.

Lancashire is a huge, cricket loving county. Over 500 schools entered this competition at the preliminary stages. 29 of the very best qualified for these finals. Out of all of them, our plucky little group of scousers ended up being the best. Flying the flag for both our school and our city.

Wolf B was phenomenal with bat, ball and behind the stumps. Ted D's hitting was monstrous. Ralph W proved a demon with the left handed bat. Seb B had his big moment. Roxana T bowled accurately all day. Harriet GW scored crucial runs with the bat. Alfie G changed the game with an unplayable spell in the semis. Max D took the catch of the day on the square leg boundary. Leah D defied the pressure of the situation to play brilliantly on debut for this team. Ehaan A captained the side brilliantly throughout, under pressure. And Isabelle R, sadly injured but a crucial part of us qualifying for this, provided moral support from the boundary. History makers one and all.

I'm a man of my word, so the champions were treated to a richly deserved McFlurry on the way back (I think this meant more to them than the two trophies we brought back to school!). This was the perfect way for the Year 6s in the squad to end their Primary sporting careers, winning one of the biggest and most significant trophies we have won in recent times. They will be greatly missed, and all have a big future in our school for sport. They're certainly already a big part of its history.

Our qualifying city finalists travelled to Wavertree for Athletics on Monday, pitting themselves against the best of the best. Hugo B and Lucy P did superbly well in the high jump, narrowly missing out on medals. Lucas J ran really well in a very tough 150m race. Similarly, Oscar M and Lucas D did brilliantly in their 800m, with Oscar just missing out on a medal. Wolf B recorded a very impressive bronze in the 150m, then went one better by winning silver in the long jump. To complete the set, he saved the best til last. Alongside Oscar, Lucas and a very patient Alfie G, they won the final event of the night, crowning themselves city champions in a victorious final act as Prep school athletes!

That's it for another year of sport, it's been amazing! There have been many, many standout moments, tonnes of silverware and brilliant memories made. Most importantly, all the children who have taken part have shown incredible skill, resilience and determination, and it's been great to see their character developing through sport. Many thanks to all the parents who have spent many an hour in all weathers supporting their child and our school, it is massively appreciated! We can't wait for it all to start again next year!!
