

Sixth Form Attire

Standards of dress and appearance are expected to be smart and conventional. Sixth Formers should always be conscious of their status as role models for the younger students and as such, it is very important that their appearance is smart and accords with the guidelines below. Dressing inappropriately for school or failing to adhere to the rules below will result in being sent home to change.

Boys' Dress Code

- Suit: Boys are to wear a plain, checked or pin-stripe suit in grey, navy or black. The jacket and trousers must match and be of the same material which should not be jersey, denim or corduroy.
- Shirt: A plain white shirt with a collar fastened at the neck should be worn.
- Tie: The sixth form tie, school colours and representative ties must be worn.
- Belt: If worn, should be plain in colour with a simple buckle.
- Jumper or cardigan: If worn, should be a plain black or grey V-necked jumper so that the tie is visible. It is not permitted to wear the jumper or cardigan without the suit jacket.
- Shoes: Smart black or brown shoes should be worn. These should be leather and designed for formal purposes not athletic ones. Canvas shoes and footwear which could be interpreted as trainers are not allowed.

Girls' Dress Code

The guidelines on the next page have been drawn up with the collaboration of our female prefect team, and the uniform rules will be enforced both by them and by members of staff. The dress code is smart and students must be well-presented at all times, as if for an office environment.
